MARCH 2027

WWW.VABANKERS.ORG/POST/VIRGINIA-READS-ONE-BOOK

VIRGINIA READS ONE BOOK

A statewide reading event that surrounds students with financial literacy.

When everyone is reading the same book at the same time, there's a whole lot to talk about!

Kicking off on March 1, 2027!

WHY?

When schools present clear, meaningful, and accessible ways to support a child's learning and wellbeing, families choose to engage, and communities thrive.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

- Families read together at home
- Schools celebrate and explore together
- Communities support and engage

READ TO THEM SCHOLARSHIP OPTION

Read to Them is offering a scholarship program again this year for schools that either:

- do not qualify for bank sponsorship or
- are not able to be matched with a bank partner

Schools may complete the application and be considered for scholarship if they do not receive a bank sponsorship.

Join us as we celebrate Financial Literacy!

Read with us beginning March 2027

Every family in schools across Virginia will read Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl together at home each night.

Students will explore and celebrate the story with school and community-based activities throughout the reading extravaganza!

Registration fee = $6.95 / student

PRAISE FROM SPONSORED SCHOOLS

“There is a constant buzz throughout the hallways during the month of Virginia Reads One Book. Teachers, students, custodians, administration, cafeteria workers, and parents are all talking about the great book we are reading together!”

“Representatives from the Powell Valley National Bank came to distribute books and bags to all the students and staff. The CEO also read the first chapter to everyone! It was a fun way to get the students excited about the Virginia Reads One Book event!”

“I love it when the kids come in talking about what they read with their families. They come in very eager to complete the daily trivia questions and we are grateful to Carter Bank for providing prizes for trivia.”

“We love the sense of community Virginia Reads brings. We also love our bank partnership. They volunteer and get all of our materials ready. The bank is also doing financial literacy lessons with our students through counseling. Such a wonderful program overall!”
