

Goods vs. Services

Goods are physical items that can change hands, such as a candy bar or a bicycle.

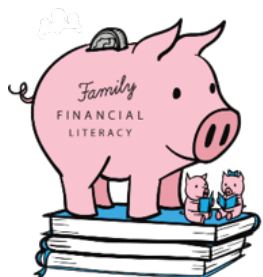

Services are tasks that are done for someone else, like a haircut, a carwash, or doctor's visit.

See how many goods and services you can find as you read your Financial Literacy title. Practice identifying goods and services with this list.

Circle whether what you bought was a good or a service.

What I Bought	What I Paid For
Pizza	Good	Service
Haircut	Good	Service
Apples	Good	Service
Toys	Good	Service
Books	Good	Service
Clothes	Good	Service
Candy	Good	Service
Doctor visit	Good	Service
Ice Cream	Good	Service
Trip to the movies	Good	Service

Can you think of other examples of goods and services?

www.readtothem.org

@readtothem

