Jeffrey V. Haley Named Chair-Elect of the Virginia Bankers Association

Glen Allen, VA (June 19, 2018) – During the 125th Annual Convention of the Virginia Bankers Association, Jeffrey V. Haley, president & CEO of American National Bank & Trust, was named Chairman-Elect of the Virginia Bankers Association (VBA). As Chairman-Elect, he is slated to become the association's chairman in June 2019.

Commenting on Haley's election, Bruce T. Whitehurst, VBA President and CEO said, "Jeff is an accomplished leader in the Virginia banking industry and has been an active and dedicated member of the VBA for many years. His skills will be of great service to the association and our members, and we are honored to have him as our chair-elect."

"I am excited to have the opportunity to work even more closely with Bruce Whitehurst and his team at the Virginia Bankers Association as we celebrate its 125th anniversary in October," said Haley. "I am proud of the work that the VBA does to support the banking industry in their role with their customers and in their communities, and I look forward to continuing and expanding that work."

Haley has served as president of American National Bank and Trust Company since 2010 and as chief executive officer of the bank since 2012. He has served as president of its holding company, American National Bankshares Inc., since 2012 and as chief executive officer of the holding company since 2013.

Prior to these positions, Haley served as Senior Vice President of the bank as well as President of Trust and Financial Services. He also spent time as the Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the bank.

Haley is an alumnus of James Madison University and the North Carolina School of Executive Bank Management. Active in many professional and civic organizations, he currently serves as a chairman of Bankers Insurance, LLC and a board member of the Virginia Chamber of Commerce. Additionally, he serves as a member of the Danville Rotary Club and as Treasurer of the Future of the Piedmont Foundation.

About the Virginia Bankers Association

Established in 1893, the Virginia Bankers Association is the unified voice for commercial and savings banks in Virginia. The VBA maintains an active legislative advocacy program, provides training to bankers statewide, and provides a variety of products and service to help its member banks best serve their communities.
