PWCAMPBELL STRENGTHENS SALES TEAM WITH FINANCIAL VETERAN

Pittsburgh, PA – PWCampbell, a 112-year-old, fourth-generation retail services and design-build company announces the hiring of Marshall Jett, Regional Vice President, to add depth to the already well-established sales team.

Marshall Jett

Jett is charged with expanding PWCampbell's design-build, technology solutions, and merchandising efforts into the Carolinas, as well as strengthening existing relationships and furthering opportunities within the state of Virginia.

A veteran in the financial services industry, Jett has served in various capacities with well-known companies such as Essex Bank, Capital One Bank, Wachovia, Horace Mann Investors, and Wells Fargo. This first-hand understanding of the inner workings and operations of the financial industry will support his ability to tailor viable solutions in retail branch expansion, branch reimagination, space optimization and customer experience enhancement through the integration of technology and positive brand perception.

"Marshall brings a wealth of hands-on banking knowledge to PWCampbell. His extensive experience will make an immediate, positive impact on our organization and our client relationships, both existing and new. We believe investing in people, our community, and our future will not only help us better serve our clients but will also help carry on PWCampbell's 112-year legacy as the leading design-build firm within the financial industry," stated Jim Caliendo, PWCampbell President & CEO.

Jett is a graduate of the University of Virginia and is currently earning his MBA from Longwood University. He resides in Henrico, Virginia, with his wife and three children.

PWCampbell is a fourth generation, family-owned retail services and design-build firm. Founded over a century ago, we are dedicated to serving our clients by providing the planning, retail branding, merchandising, technology solutions, design, and construction expertise they seek to optimize their marketing efforts.
