

THOMAS L. RASEY, JR., THE FARMERS BANK OF APPOMATTOX Tom is Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of The Farmers Bank of Appomattox. He joined Farmers in 2009 and has partnered with members of the executive management team to develop the bank's current employee mentorship program. Tom has served as Farmers' grassroots advocacy representative with both federal and state legislators and regularly agencies. He has also led the bank's financial literacy efforts, cultivating employee engagement to broaden Farmers' reach into area schools and the local library. He was recently recognized by the ICBA Independent Banker magazine's 40 under 40: Emerging Community Bank Leaders in June 2020 for his work in advocating for and developing talent in the industry. Tom has worked with Scott Insurance in Lynchburg, Wachovia (now Wells Fargo) in Farmville, and GEICO in Virginia Beach. Tom has been a member of the Emerging Bank Leaders Steering Committee since 2011, serving as Chair in 2019. He is a graduate of VBA School of Bank Management, VBA Executive Leadership Institute and is currently enrolled at the Graduate School of Banking at LSU where he serves as Class Treasurer and member of the Student Advisory committee for the Class of 2022.