Chesapeake Bank's payment system eases financial worries for truck drivers

Published: 11:15 02 Aug 2024 EDT

Chesapeake Bank, a division of Chesapeake Financial Shares Inc. (OTCQX:CPKF), has introduced a new real-time payments system designed specifically for the trucking industry, allowing truck drivers to receive funds immediately upon completing deliveries and their paperwork is approved.

According to PYMNTS Intelligence's report, 93% of truck drivers would prefer instant payments to receive their earnings, if available.

Quick access to funds and convenience are the main reasons for their preference, helping drivers manage their finances better.
